Takes Name Of Paul VI

Cardinal Montini Elected New Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In age-old ceremony the College of Cardinals today elected Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, archbishop of Milan, the new Pope of the Roman Catholic Church. He chose the name of Paul VI as a symbol of Christian unity.

President Expects To Call On New Pope

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is expected to call on the new Pope while he is in Italy from June 30 to July 2.

The White House withheld any formal announcement, but informed sources said it is almost certain that Kennedy will visit Paul VI, who was elected today as head of the Roman Catholic Church.

The new Pope is expected to carry forward the progressive policies of his predecessor, John XXIII, who died June 3 at the age of 81. Pope Paul at 65 is the 262nd ruler of the Roman Catholic Church.

"I have tidings of great joy," proclaimed a cardinal to thousands who jammed St. Peter's Square. "We have a Pope."

In line with tradition, Pope Paul then appeared on the balcony of the Sistine Chapel at 12:21 p.m. to make his first public appearance as the chief pastor of the world's half-billion Roman Catholics. It was an hour after the white smoke puffing from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel had first signaled his election.

Only for an instant did the voice of the new Pope shake with emotion as he gave his first blessing, "Urbi et orbi," to the City of Rome and to the world. His message rang out clear and strong to the crowds below. They responded with a great roar.

He stayed on the balcony for five minutes, clad in papal robes of white, with a white skullcap. An embroidered papal stole draped his shoulders. Gray-haired, blue-eyed, he presented a figure of great dignity and fine physical appearance.

As he delivered the blessing he made the sign of the cross toward the crowd.

Then he returned to the Sistine Chapel to again receive the homage of the College of Cardinals who had chosen him Pope.

The throng was told that the new Pope had granted them a full indulgence—a remission before God of temporal punishment due for sins.

Eighty princes of the church elected the Milan archbishop on the second day of their secret conclave in the Sistine Chapel. He had been regarded as a favorite. The election came on the fifth or sixth ballot.

He was archbishop of Milan for

Locals Select 65 For Roles In Convention

Las Vegas Sessions Of Ware Union To Commence July 15

Eighteen East Liverpool area locals of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters have named 65 men and women to serve as delegates to the union's 68th annual convention, which will open July 15 at Las Vegas, Nev.

Scheduled for the Sahara Hotel, a 24-story resort in the southwestern desert city, the convention is expected to be in session about a week. With its own convention hall, the hotel has 1,000 rooms.

The delegates are scheduled to act on a long list of resolutions, many of them related to amendments or other changes in the IBOP Constitution. The union already has published a list of the proposals in its official newspaper, The Potters Herald.

Each local's quota of delegates is based on membership. E. L. Wheatley, international president, will conduct the sessions.

Here are the area locals and the delegates they have elected:

Training, Education

Kennedy Unveils Broad Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has asked Congress to approve a massive federal vocational training and education program designed to aid economically deprived Negro and white Americans.

The President's program, first mentioned in his civil rights message Wednesday, was spelled out in three bills he forwarded Thursday to Capitol Hill. They call for an estimated federal outlay next year of $300 million.

One bill would expand the manpower development program authorized next year, a second would step up the vocational education measure now being considered by the Senate and the third assist adults now on welfare roles primarily by increasing their basic educational skills.

In his message Kennedy had cited the problems of those who are "illiterate and unskilled, unable to read a help wanted advertisement."

"Although the proportion of Negroes without an adequate education and training is far higher than the proportion of whites," Kennedy said, "none of these problems is restricted to Negroes alone."

Among other things, the President called for:

1. A new $70-million program to teach adults to read and write so they can take advantage of federal retraining programs.
2. Earmarking funds for special boarding schools to train out-of-school jobless youths.
3. Lowering the age for youths eligible for training allowances from 19 to 16 and raising the proportion of training allowances for young people from 5 to 15 per cent.

Concern Over Violence Deepens

March On Capitol Hill By 100,000 Is Feared

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police intelligence reports that 100,000 Negroes might march on Capitol Hill to demonstrate for civil rights legislation have deepened concern that violence might flare from the protest.

The concern is shared by advocates and opponents of new civil rights measures, well-placed sources told a reporter, and many backers of the legislation hope the White House will help to evolve some compromise but dramatic alternative.

The estimate on the number of marchers was made, the sources said, by the New York City Police Department, which forwarded its intelligence reports to the Washington Metropolitan Police. In turn, the information was sent to Capitol Hill, which has its own police force of a couple of hundred men, many of them college students.

The fear of violence is based, too, on talk by integrationist leaders of mass "sit-ins" in the halls of Congress and its environs that would run afoul of the law.

It was learned from a top informant that Washington and Capitol police officials have expressed strong doubt that incidents could be avoided if 100,000 demonstrators, or even fewer thousands, began milling about Capitol buildings or grounds, or attempted to stage "sit-ins" in or outside the offices of any filibustering senators.

President Kennedy himself, in a message to Congress Wednesday submitting his civil rights program, cautioned against racial demonstrations "which can lead to violence" but made no mention of the intelligence reports. Leaders of major organizations fighting for civil rights legislation promptly made clear they did not intend to call off demonstrations.

Rebuttal Set Monday In Smith Trial

Prosecutor Also To Ask Testimony On Robinson's Behalf

By CHARLES CRONIN
Prosecutor G. William Brokaw is expected to summon several rebuttal witnesses Monday morning when the trial of Miss Roberta C. Smith resumes in Common Pleas Court in Lisbon after a weekend recess.

Miss Smith, 40, of Fairmont St., is being tried on charges of larceny and embezzlement in connection with a $23,841 shortage uncovered by a state examiner in the East Liverpool water department, where she was chief clerk.

It appears the case will reach the jury Monday afternoon after closing arguments and Judge Raymond S. Buzzard's charge.

12 Witnesses Testify
Since the trial opened Monday, both Prosecutor Brokaw and defense Attorney Frank Springer have summoned 12 witnesses to testify before a panel of five women and seven men hearing Miss Smith's second trial.

Miss Smith was on the stand for five hours Thursday and the defense rested its case at 3:10 p.m. Brokaw had rested the state's case at 10 a.m. Wednesday, but called a rebuttal witness after Miss Smith finished her testimony late yesterday.

The defendant was tried on a charge of embezzlement in connection with the water department shortage but the case ended in a hung jury in December before Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Brokaw is expected to call "character witnesses" to the stand Monday morning to testify in behalf of the late Frank Robinson, former water department superintendent. He died in 1961 after 44 years on the department.

Claims Fund 'Coverup'
Miss Smith claims she covered up an alleged theft of $11,000 from the water department at the request of Mr. Robinson.

Brokaw asked the defendant yesterday, "If the shortage was almost $11,000 in September 1959, why was it more than twice that much in 1961?" "I don't know, I wish I did," Miss Smith said.

Robert Lippincott of Poland, a state examiner, uncovered a shortage in the department in an audit of the records covering the period from May 1, 1959, to Nov. 30, 1961. He was Brokaw's key witness.

Lippincott testified during the week that Miss Smith had inquired about an opportunity to make "restitution" when he talked with

$2 Billion Sliced From Defense Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department's 1964 money budget was cut almost $2 billion today by the House Appropriations Committee.

But the committee, in a report written by Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., said the cut would not impede any essential military programs and actually represented money the department probably couldn't spend if it had it.

The $47,092,209,000 recommended by the committee for use during the fiscal year starting July 1 would, the report said:

"Support programs which will promote the security of the United States and assure the continuation of the policy of military supremacy."

The $1,922,028,000 cut of about 4 per cent actually isn't as big as it appears. The committee noted that about $1,147,700,000 of the reduction is in the bookkeeping area or in items for which financial needs of the services were overestimated.

City Officer, Chester Man Hurt In Crash

Rear Of Police Car Damaged Heavily In E. 3rd Mishap

A city patrolman and a Chester motorist were injured in a three-way crash Thursday at 5:26 p.m. at E. 3rd and Walnut Sts. that smashed two rear fenders of a police cruiser and also damaged two private cars, police reported.

Patrolman Karl W. Samples, 30, operator of the cruiser, was treated at City Hospital for contusions and abrasions of the left leg, while Victor B. Wright, 47, of Chester R. D. 1 suffered a whiplash injury of the neck, the hospital reported.

The collision involved a 1963 model cruiser operated by Officer Samples and a 1962 compact sedan driven by Wright, police said. After the initial impact, the rear of the police cruiser struck the front of a halted 1957 model station wagon operated by Ronald Krzyzanowski, 34, of Dunkirk, N. Y., officers said.

The collision smashed in both rear fenders of the cruiser, also bending the trunk lid. There also was damage to the left front of Wright's auto and the station wagon on which Krzyzanowski was driving, owned by the Manni Trucking Co., Inc., of Dunkirk, police said.

Patrolman Paul Blevins made the investigation.

Officer Samples reported he was driving south on Walnut St., halting at a stop sign at the junction with E. 3rd. After checking for approaching traffic, he proceeded across the intersection when he noted Wright's eastbound car approaching "at a high rate of speed," he said.

The officer said he accelerated the cruiser to get across the intersection quickly and felt he was clear when Wright's car hit the police car in the right rear and knocked it into the station wagon.

Wright commented to police that the accident "happened so darned fast. . ." He added that it was raining at the time. Wright said the cruiser pulled in front of his car and he applied the brakes, but his vehicle skidded because of wet pavement.

Krzyzanowski reported he was halted at the corner of Walnut St., waiting to cross to the other side. He said he saw Wright's car approaching "at a high rate of speed."

The cruiser "came across and seemed to be clear" when it was hit by the Chester man's auto, he said.

Officers also took statements from two witnesses. William Nolan of the Travelers Hotel declared he was certain the

USW, 11 Major Firms Reach Historic Accord

No Pay Hike Included In Agreement

13-Week Vacation Due Some; Other Fringe Benefits Set

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A historic steel-labor agreement which could possibly revolutionize collective bargaining was reached Thursday by the United Steelworkers Union and 11 major steel producers.

The agreement, seen as a partial answer to the industry's unemployment ills, marks the first time a settlement has been concluded in the basic steel industry without a strike or threat of a strike.

No wage hike is included in the pact.

The agreement will cost the companies an estimated 15 cents an hour per man-hour worked.

Highlights of the agreement are:

Thirteen weeks' paid vacations every five years for high seniority workers representing 50 per cent of the current 450,000 maintenance and production workers in basic steel.

Extension of the present wage agreement for 21 months from Aug. 1, 1963. It may be reopened by either party on 120 days' notice served after Jan. 1, 1965.

Increasing paid hospitalization benefits from the present 120 days to 365 days.

A $10 increase in the present $57.50 per week sick and accident benefits.

A $500 increase in life insurance benefits.

An experimental agreement to limit hiring outside contractors for maintenance, repair and installation work and to limit the use of supervisory employees to perform work which can be done by union members.

A provision whereby workers without enough seniority to qualify them for the 13 weeks "sabbatical" leaves will be able to receive additional single weeks of vacation to add to their vacation banks in the 1962 agreement.

Announcement of the agreement—reached without formal collective bargaining—was made jointly by labor and management executives at a news conference following a three-hour ratifying ses-

Chilly Spell Follows Rain

Mercury Hits 45 With Summer Due

Summer arrives officially at 11:04 tonight but the Ohio weatherman arranged a chilly reception as temperatures dipped considerably following a cold front that brought heavy showers Thursday afternoon.

The mercury dipped from the even 80 degrees yesterday afternoon to a cool 45 in the downtown this morning and the forecast indicates tonight's low will be 40 to 45 degrees. The day's high will be 62 to 68.

The Stratton Dam reported 0.45 inch precipitation from two main storms but the immediate East Liverpool area may have received more rain.

The dam recorded the first storm from 1:55 to 2:30 and a harder one from 5:45 to 6:30. The latter storm was accompanied by heavy winds.

Storm damage in East Liverpool was "very minor," confined to blocked gutters and sewers and ruts washed in unimproved streets, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said.

Residents who happened to be outdoors about 9 last night enjoyed a spectacular display of the Northern Lights, as another freak of the storm front.

Saturday will be sunny and a little warmer.

Funerals Set For 2 Empire River Victims

Boys' Rites Will Be Held 2 Hours Apart Sunday Afternoon

Separate funerals will be held Sunday afternoon in Toronto for two Empire boys who were drowned in the Ohio River Wednesday.

Firemen with grappling hooks recovered the bodies of James Tice, 7, and Terry Lee Toy, 8, Thursday morning in about 25 feet of water some 50 feet offshore from where part of their clothing and a fishing pole were found following their disappearance the day before.

The two had gone to the river about noon Wednesday and four hours later borrowed bait from another boy. That was the last time they were seen alive.

Relatives sounded the alert Wednesday night when they failed to return home and skin divers tried to locate the bodies, working until midnight. Stratton and

City Union, Councilmen Will Confer

Officers of the city employees' union said today they expect to confer sometime Monday with the Council finance committee on a threat that street department services may have to be curtailed or some employees may have to be furloughed by July 1 because of a financial crisis.

Spokesmen for Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, said they expect to discuss the situation with Councilmen George E. Willshaw, Robert W. Sample Jr. and Edward Massey, comprising the committee, but no definite meeting time has been set. John Trimble of Youngstown, district representative of the union, will be in East Liverpool all day Monday, available for the conference, they said.

Meeting a week ago with Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to discuss the impending cut-back, the union decided to seek a conference with councilmen. The union said it seeks up-to-date information on the situation before its monthly meeting Monday night at 7:30 in Carpenters Hall.

The collision smashed in both rear fenders of the cruiser, also bending the trunk lid. There also was damage to the left front of Wright's auto and the station wagon on which Krzyzanowski was driving, owned by the Manni Trucking Co., Inc., of Dunkirk, police said.

Patrolman Paul Blevins made the investigation.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Cuban Revolutionary Council and thousands of exiles awaited word today from commandos the council said it had put on Fidel Castro's shores to launch "the beginning of the liberation of Cuba."

There was no confirmation from Cuban or United States governments of such landings. The council said it expected a progress report by radio today from fighting men it said were welcomed by peasants and who swiftly joined forces with area guerrilla bands.

Sketchy and unauthenticated broadcasts pointed to southern Oriente, Cuba's easternmost province, as the possible site of landings and perhaps clashes.

One such broadcast Thursday night reported a "Camilo Cienfuegos Battalion" landed and met overwhelming opposition at Caney de Las Mercedes, near Manzanillo which is 280 miles west of the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay. But a former Caney de Las Mercedes resident who heard the same news said "Camilo Cienfuegos" was the name of a Castro youth communism indoctrination school there. He said the report indicated invaders were hotly besieging it.

Another exile said a broadcast from the 40 meter band said, "This is the Cuban Anti-Communist Liberation Army. Go ahead Pinar del Rio." Pinar del Rio is the name

A Cuban military network broadcast mentioned no landings, but warned servicemen, especially in naval units, to be alert for anything unusual.

Commissioners Clear Alley's Abandonment

County commissioners, meeting Thursday at Lisbon, approved a petition for abandonment of a 20-foot alley between Ada St. and Denmore Ave. in the Sherwood Addition of Liverpool Township.

The alley runs north and south, parallel with Sherwood Ave. Fifteen property-owners petitioned for the abandonment, asserting the alley in unused.

Commissioners approved a $300 slag grant for Unity Township. A travel allowance was approved for Recorder Richard Brian and two of his employees to attend a meeting of the Northeast Ohio Records Association Wednesday in Massillon.

The commissioners' next regular meeting will be Monday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean wood-paneled walls that are finished with wax?

A. These seldom need more than dusting. If, however, they are beginning to look dry and grimy, clean with liquid wax on a soft cloth, buff them, and then apply a fresh coating of wax. Rub the panels with another soft cloth until a dry fingertip will not leave a mark.

Q. How can I darken some light tan-leather articles, such as belts, shoes, etc.?

A. By rubbing with a cloth dipped in ammonia. This gives a deep brown finish to the leather. Apply it uniformly, so that the finish won't be spotty.

Q. How can I add more "body" to an organdy dress I am washing out?

A. If a tablespoonful of sugar is added to a gallon of water when rinsing the dress, it will give it more body without making it too stiff.

Q. How can I banish those familiar kitchen odors from my hands, such as onion, fish, or oil?

A. By rubbing the hands with some moistened salt, then rinsing well with clear water, and finishing with soap. Or, just rinse with vinegar.

Blue Bird Day Camp Under Way

Karen Goss, Patty Webber, Cathy Cannon and Lee Ann Maltrich, left to right, members of Blue Bird Day Camp now in session at the Bryan Recreation Center in Dixonville, demonstrate "Our American Heritage," the theme for the second phase of the summer program provided by the East Liverpool Area Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

The replica of an Indian village, erected by the campers, consisted of teepees, totem poles, drying racks and other traditional Indian items. As they explored the history of the American Indians, these Blue Birds, youngest members of the Camp Fire program, have learned many Indian songs, games, dances and crafts. They have made masks, jewelry and nature studies.

Open house was to be held this afternoon for parents and friends to see the demonstrations and exhibits prepared by the campers.

Mrs. Mary Galloway, director, said a second group of Blue Birds will begin camp Monday morning at 9:30. Buses will pick up the girls at 9 in the Diamond. A second stop will be made at the North Side fire station.

Camp assistants were Mrs. Lorna Hall, Mrs. Roberta Ruth-em, Mrs. Marty Sanford, Miss Antoinette Greco, Miss Madelon Schlang and Mrs. Letitia Hammon, counselors, and Diane Eddy, Grace Galloway, Sandy Hargreaves, Sally Anderson, Cheryl Hill, Mary Cunningham, Judy Shasteen, Becky Sanford and Susan Ruthem, aides. Miss Pearl Welch is the nurse in charge.

Registrations for the fourth, fifth and sixth grade groups will be held Saturday morning from 9 to noon at the council offices, 517 Broadway. Those not currently registered in the Camp Fire Girls program may attend, whether they are members or not.

More District Post Offices Announce ZIP Code Number

Seventeen more district postmasters have announced their assigned numbers in the Post Office Department's Zone Improvement Program (ZIP), a new system designed to improve mail dispatch and delivery, going into effect nationally July 1.

Use of the numbers will permit the Post Office Department to short-cut repeated address reading, speeding mail deliveries and reducing the chance of mis-sent mail.

Among the postmasters announcing their assigned five-digit ZIP codes are Robert H. Edwards of Chester, Arnie Durham of Newell, Angelo Cellini of Midland, Samuel Reese of Weirton, Mrs. Clifford Blackmore of Smiths Ferry, Florence E. Cook of Shippingport, Miss Margaret Knight of Industry and Lois Switzer of Elkton.

In answering mail, the ZIP codes taken from return addresses on incoming mail should be used, they said. The mail addressing should follow this example:

Patrol Appeals For Witness To Plunge Of Auto

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon today issued an appeal to the trucker who spotted a stolen car over a steep hillside along the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd. Thursday morning to identify himself and aid in the investigation.

Officers said the stolen vehicle, a 1957 Mercury sedan owned by Roger McCoy of Brighton Ave., Dixonville, was found about 150 feet over the hillside near the sharp curve on the hill about a mile from the Beaver County line.

The car was on fire and the passing trucker halted another passing car and had the driver turn in the fire alarm.

McCoy was in Lisbon filing a stolen car report at the Columbiana County sheriff's office when Constable Richard Wright of St. Clair Township called to make a license check.

The name of the trucker never was obtained. Officers said he could help them complete their report of the incident.

But Can We Define It?

If some of us had spent as much time thinking about "disestablishmentarianism" as learning to spell it, the reason for keeping politicians and preachers apart in our country would be easier to understand.

As it is, every attempt to remind the American people that the Constitution means what its First Amendment says — "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof" — sets off an emotional binge. The historical truth and the present danger are both buried under hysterical charges and countercharges.

"Disestablishmentarianism" is the policy of severing all relationship between a state and its "established" church.

The policy never was in the United States, which "disestablished" all church connection from the beginning. That was why the First Amendment was put into the Constitution at the head of the Bill of Rights.

OUR FOUNDING FATHERS wanted this republic to be forever free of state religion. This was why the first settlers came to the New World — to worship as they pleased.

To these people, "disestablishmentarianism" was the most important of all freedoms. Yet, so much time has passed that many modern beneficiaries of the fight to separate politicians and preachers have lost sight of the meaning of a word they now think of only as a challenge to spellers.

Those who read the latest Supreme Court decision in this perennial issue — both the majority ruling and the lone dissent by Justice Potter Stewart — must be impressed with the clarity of the judicial thinking.

States that have made laws about religion in public schools are in violation of the First Amendment. The Fourteenth Amendment says states can make no laws contradictory to basic federal law.

Therefore, states that have made laws about religion in schools have violated the Constitution. It is that simple.

THERE IS no restraint on prayer, Bible reading, or any other religious act or exercise.

Any person who claims religion has sustained a setback either misunderstands the Supreme Court or is clouding the issue.

Exactly the contrary is true.

The Supreme Court is doing what the Founding Fathers wanted done when they laid down ground rules for religious freedom in the United States — keep the state forever free from domination by religion and thereby keep the people free to worship as they please, or not to worship at all.

Going Because It's There

It's as if people who wondered why the United States should send a man to the moon had tired of wondering about that and taken up a puzzlement closer to home.

Why is President Kennedy going to Europe? The same answer covers both situations.

The United States is going to send a man to the moon because it's there.

The President is going to Europe because it's there.

IT IS POSSIBLE he may accomplish as much by having nothing special in mind as his predecessors have accomplished on special missions.

It is probable he will have less to regret than they have had when the repercussions of their visits were revealed. At least this will not be a Yalta or a Potsdam, not even a "summit conference."

There might even be some good results for the Macmillan government in Britain. British restraint might dictate an easing off of the inquiry into underlying causes and consequences of what alarmists are calling a state of decadence in the "establishment."

It might even be good for Frenchmen and nationalities associated with Frenchmen in the Common Market to wonder why the President of the United States wasn't invited to visit France. It might occur to them that France, under President de Gaulle, is in the isolationism that the United States had to break out of before it could come to France's rescue in two world wars.

AS FOR THE effect of the visit at home, it makes no difference whether Mr. Kennedy is in Washington, Hyannis Port, London, or Rome.

The idea that the president of the United States is drained of his power when he leaves the White House has been absurd ever since long distance telephoning was perfected.

Europe is there, so President Kennedy is going there.

Does he really need any better reason?

It's good enough for all the other Americans who will go to Europe this summer.

They Mean Every Word Of It

Spokesmen for the segregation wing of the Democratic party say they will do everything in their power to scuttle the civil rights program of President Kennedy, and they mean every word of it.

It is not an idle boast.

These men control the chairmanships of key committees in both houses of Congress. They are dominant.

In the Senate, they can carry on a filibuster any time they choose—and maintain it indefinitely, contrary to wishful thinking, because they hold a club over the heads of senators, who might as well resign if they incur the ill will of the segregationist core of the Democratic party. The Solid South keeps the Democratic party in power.

It takes no special insight to predict the bitterest intraparty fight of recent years.

It is a reasonable guess that in the Democratic convention next year there will be extreme tension between delegates from segregation states and civil rights states.

It is in the cards that when the platform committee of the convention tries to write a civil rights plank the "South will rise again," as it has been rising since it was blocked from leaving the Union a century ago.

The American people can only wonder how a political party split in two over civil rights for Negroes can be one thing in the segregationist South and claim to be the opposite thing in the East, North and West? Which is the real thing?

How can the Democratic party get together next summer to organize a national campaign? The party's convention site committee is scheduled to meet in a few more days to select a convention city.

Will it be Chicago, Atlantic City, Detroit, Philadelphia, Miami, Dallas, San Francisco? Shouldn't it be Birmingham?

Saved And Damned

All of us are indebted to a Massachusetts doctor for doing something about the idea that American kids are pale and delicate, underdeveloped, undernourished and underexercised.

Dr. Harold M. Sterling, while attending the American Medical Association's 112th meeting, in Boston, Mass., said the standards that U.S. youth haven't been coming up to are ridiculous; that our boys and girls are doing fine.

New Frontier razzmatazz about physical fitness, he went on to suggest, is poppycock. The exercises kids have been put through as one result of the razzmatazz are tommyrot.

In plain talk, the American people have been sold a bill of goods.

Some of us skeptics thought so from the beginning. We thought this proposition smelled like the old political chestnut that divides people into two categories, the saved and the damned, and then saves the damned on terms dictated by the saved.

In this instance, the saved were the Kennedys, who play touch football, sail boats, jump into and out of swimming pools like dolphins and runneth over with "vigah." The damned were all the rest of us, especially our children who, it was alleged, couldn't even do pushups.

All we knew about that was that our First Lady, who married into the family, broke something or other trying to play touch football with her in-laws and swore off forever. Her specialty is riding to hounds.

But her husband the Prez can't be hired to get on a horse, which pretty much tells the story. There are people in this country who couldn't do a pushup to save their lives but are able to make their own living and contribute their bit to the statistical longevity of the civilization.

Some of the kids breaking arms and legs in physical fitness programs sparked off by this political plot of the over-vitalized Kennedys may never learn to do a nip-up yet manage to take care of their own affairs and do their own housework.

And as for the hiking bit, all it proved was how silly people can get if given a little encouragement. All of a sudden, hikers were a dime a dozen, including phoney ones who had left their chauffeur-driven town cars in parking lots around the corner from the starting place.

Some of us whose children were not statistical but actual spotted the physical fitness fallacy at the outset. We remembered pictures of all those physically fit kids in Russia, Germany, Italy and Japan—hapless, hopeless little devils flailing their arms and marching hup, two, three, four... halt!

We remembered that American kids were taller, heavier and a darned sight more resourceful on the whole than those goose-stepping automatons. We had seen them playing football and basketball and roughhousing in a way that would have wracked up most foreign kids, who don't go in for hard contact sports.

Thanks, Dr. Sterling.

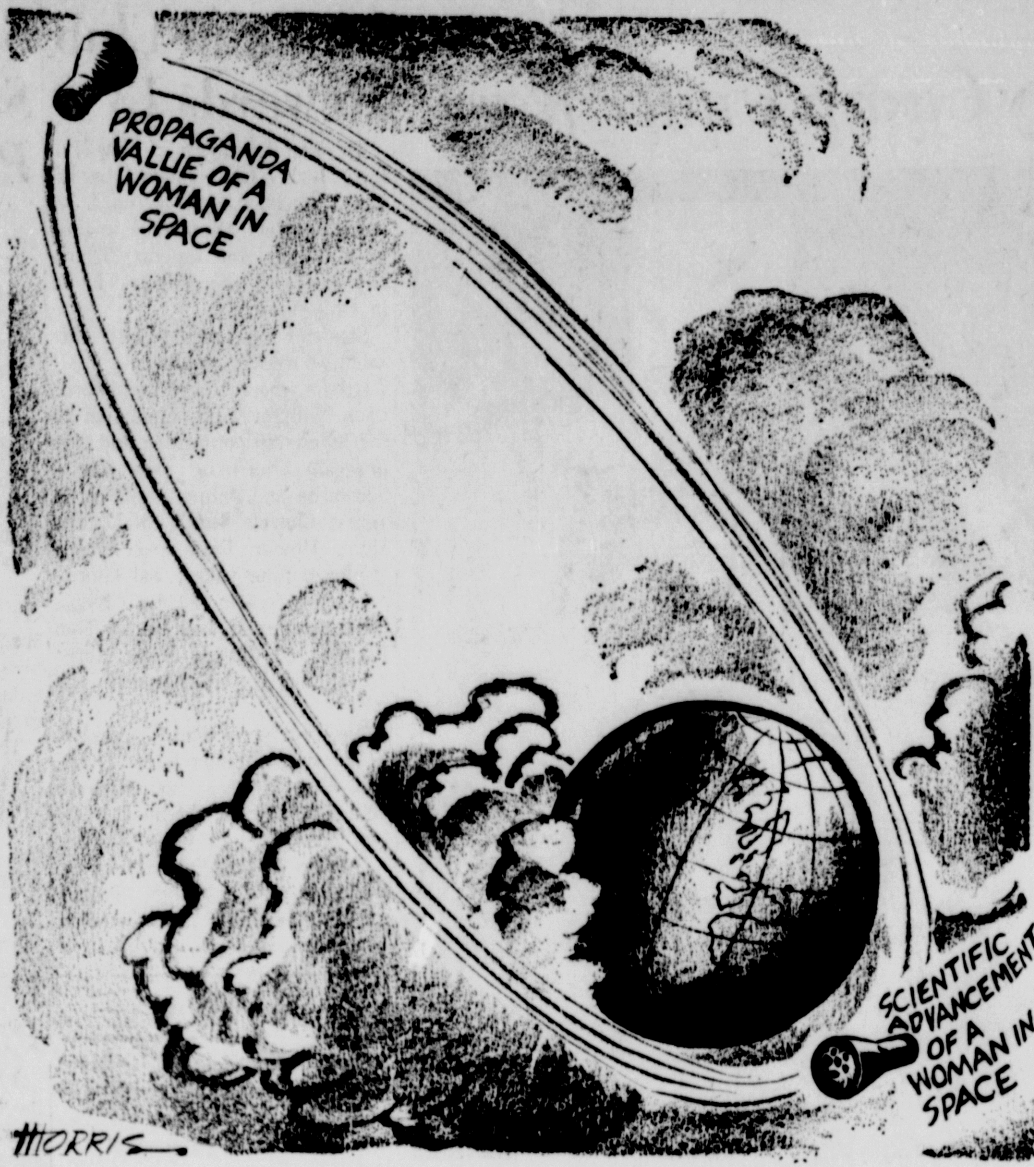

With your encouragement, we're going to do with physical fitness what we finally did with the proposition that one third of us were ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed.

Odd Facts

Yellowstone National Park was the first area in the world designated a national park to protect and preserve the natural landscape for human enjoyment. Established in 1872 by an Act of Congress, signed by President Ulysses S. Grant, it has an area of 3,472 square miles — more than either Delaware or Rhode Island.

According to law, the owner of land on which buried treasure is found, has no right to it. It belongs to the finder. Of course, this applies only to coins and valuables buried or hidden on the land, and not to ore or other natural deposits.

The Apogee And The Perigee

Labor Begins Drive For Shorter Week

By Victor Riesel

Virtually overlooked by the nation is the actual launching by labor strategists of the big push for a shorter work week ranging from 36 to 30 hours at 40 hours pay. This drive now is under way. It will pick up speed in mid-July. And it could well get its most dramatic fillip from new union tactics inside the secret conferences being held by the government in its effort to block a nationwide railroad strike.

Insiders are saying that the leaders of the five "on-train" unions soon will make the real issue inside those closed door parleys a shorter work day on the country's 195 major railroads.

The sources report that the proposed cut in hours will become a stormier issue than the roads' attempt to lay off tens of thousands of Diesel locomotive firemen and others whom the lines say cost $600 million annually for unnecessary jobs.

In effect, the rail brotherhoods are expected to end their strike threat if they get a 36-hour week — that is a six-hour day (six-day week), instead of an eight-hour day.

If they do win this, the unions will yield on most of the proposed layoffs. In fact, the unions already have put on paper their own proposals for the reduction of firemen work six or even seven days.

Since then, say the brotherhood leaders, there has been little official change.

However, the railroad companies point out that practically all their on-train employees are actually on the trains for six hours though the day is officially eight hours.

The figure is slightly less for the firemen and locomotive engineers than it is for the brake-men and conductors.

TO FULLY EXPLAIN the railroad pay system based on hours, runs, 100-mile stretches, interdivisional trips, etc., is like attempting to operate a Chinese language computer the first time you meet it.

Basically, however, the railroads now want to have the men put in a full eight hours of work. They want to take a man after he has been on train for six hours and have him work an additional two hours in the yards — or wherever he is needed. The unions object. They say that they put in far more than eight hours if one considers layovers and other factors.

So what they will push is a demand for an official six-hour day for some of the on-train members and a five-hour day for others. They want no change in the number of consecutive days worked. They're willing to go for six days. This would give them a 36- to a 30-hour week.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. H. C. Stewart and Mrs. G. W. Dawson, both of Hookstown, and Mrs. Lydia Brown of Chester attended an Eastern Star convention in Conneaut.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Sarah Oakes was elected matron-at-arms of the East Liverpool Navy Mothers Club.

William O. McDonald of Glenmoor was seated as president of the East Liverpool Lions Club.

Mrs. J. Nessly Porter and daughter, Patricia Joyce, of Park Way, returned home after spending several months at their winter home in Hollywood, Fla.

TEN YEARS AGO — Members of the Highlandtown Merry Makers 4-H Club, with Mrs. Jane

These hours would depend on the craft and on the type of trains — freight or passenger.

The railroads will fight this. There will be a deadlock long before the July 10 truce deadline. President Kennedy will then ask both sides to submit voluntarily to arbitration.

IF THIS FAILS, the President will go to Congress. He will not ask for power to seize the railroads, say the insiders. He will seek a special law for special arbitration of the rail dispute. He will get it.

During this arbitration, the unions will point out that almost four years ago, when the battle began, they asked for a shorter work week to counter the rails' demand for the end of featherbedding. The railroads won their point, the unions will say. Now the brotherhoods will ask for a compromise on the shorter work week in return.

Whether they win or lose their demand, they will help speed up labor's drive for a shorter work week in all industry. The issue will have been dramatized in midsummer just as the House Labor subcommittee under Rep. Elmer J. Holland, D-Pa., heightens its hearings on a bill for a 35-hour week proposed by the AFL-CIO.

This is just the beginning. The real fight will hit the headlines right smack in the middle of the 1964 presidential campaign.

Bernard Baruch, 92, ending a month in a New York hospital, says he is "feeling much better." The elderly financier's stay in the hospital was described as a rest period and a routine checkup.

Sir Charles Snow, British scientist and author known to his readers as C. P. Snow, said in New York that U.S. haste to reach the moon "probably is a mistake."

Snow said he thought Americans are "abnormally sensitive" to Soviet space feats and have overreacted in the moon project.

Actress Frances Nuyen and Dr. Thomas Gaspar Morell got a marriage license in New York and plan to marry on Saturday. Miss Nuyen, 23, gave her birthplace as Marseilles, France. Morell, 30, is from Bronxville, N.Y. It will be the first marriage for both.

Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, hailed "the important ambassadorial effect" of free exchange of books at the opening of the 8th International Book Exhibition at New York's main public library. Books, Stevenson said, provide "infinite possibilities of the two-way communication" between the United States and foreign nations.

Is NEA A Union?

By Raymond Moley

Controversy In Utah Discussed

Considerable notice has appeared in the press over the nation about the controversy in Utah between the public school teachers and Gov. George D. Clyde and the State Legislature.

Early this year the Utah Education Association, a unit of the National Education Association, asked that there should be an increase of $24.7 million in state spending for the public schools.

The Legislature granted $11.6 million. Thereupon, the UEA threatened that at the opening of schools this fall teacher members would not return to their posts.

In this case and in others over the nation in earlier cases, the teachers' associations are careful not to use the word "strike" for such a refusal to work. They use "sanctions," which is a United Nations word meaning pressure or coercion.

There is essentially no difference between a strike and a sanction. In the former, teachers quit work. In the latter, they do not begin to work when schools open.

There are probably two reasons why the word "sanction" is used. One is that the NEA does not want to come under the jurisdiction of the labor laws. The other is to maintain its status as a professional association and that of its members as professional men and women.

FOR A LONG PERIOD of its life of more than 100 years the NEA was essentially a professional organization. It published information helpful in the work of a classroom teacher.

It worked for the improvement of the teaching art. Its annual conventions and meetings of state and local units offered lectures, inspirational and informative. Its efforts were to improve the quality of teachers and teaching.

But in recent years it has consolidated itself into a very powerful pressure group working in Washington and in states for legislation favorable to schools and teaching. Now it's essentially as much a political organization as is the AFL-CIO. And since the war its concentration has been on federal aid for school construction and teachers' salaries.

This effort to get federal money for the schools, to be distributed by the U.S. Office of Education, is the ostensible purpose of the NEA. But it has become more and more clear that its real objective is to take more and more control of education away from school boards and official school administrators.

Its hope is that, by exploiting its close contact with the U.S. Office of Education, it will in fact determine matters such as working conditions, class size, curriculum planning, teaching methods and philosophy.

In short, it regards education as too important a matter to be left to the direction of lay school boards and legislatures. It's dedicated to the idea of government by an elite of professional educator-politicians.

This effort to take over a large area of school management is resisted by school boards and legislators. They see education as something that is provided and its content determined by parents and citizens operating through their elected representative school boards.

ESSENTIALLY, the NEA's objective is standardized education directed and controlled by a national association and a federal bureau. Such a concept of mass education by an elite is repugnant to the traditional American system of local control.

Within the NEA's operating group and bureaucracy, plans are going ahead rapidly. Two documents which are called "developmental" and "tentative" and which show the nature of such plans have come to the attention of this writer.

One is called "Guidelines for Professional Negotiation"; the other, "Guidelines for Professional Sanctions."

These are carefully labeled "intended only for consideration of officials of the NEA and affiliated organizations." They are "how-to-do-it" directives, a clever and detailed as the AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education literature instructing its members how to win elections in practical politics. These are presumably scheduled for action at the July convention of the NEA.

ONE REASON for the energetic actions of the NEA is its fear, that unless it gets deeply into collective bargaining and coercive action its membership will drift into the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers.

Utah will be a big test in this new conflict. For that state is politically conservative, with strong feelings about local control of its schools. The two leading institutions of higher learning, the University of Utah and Brigham Young University, are opposed to the sanctions, as are the school administrators and the state government.

Nationally, this is a power struggle between local boards and professional associations. Money is only incidental to the controversy. It's a matter of management and control of the public schools.

Year-Round College

By Terry Ferrer

"Within the next 20 years, every college and university in the United States will either be on a year-round schedule or will make such acceleration of the college years possible for those students who want it."

Typically, Dr. Grayson Kirk, president of Columbia University, was looking ahead instead of back. He was being interviewed in his pleasant office on the 10th anniversary of his installation as head of the West university in New York City.

A decade ago, Dr. Kirk was installed at commencement as Columbia's 14th president, gave his inaugural address, and then conferred 6,149 degrees on graduates and undergraduates.

Ten years older at 59 and an estimated 2,000 speeches later, Dr. Kirk gave the commencement address and conferred degrees this year on 6,313 graduates and undergraduates.

A lot has happened in the years between.

And, as Dr. Kirk sees it, a lot more will be happening in the next decade.

ULTIMATELY, Dr. Kirk continued, Columbia and the other 2,000 colleges and universities in the country "will come to the trimester plan" — three academic periods year-round instead of two semesters for eight months. Because this nation cannot afford the time spent in four years of college, Dr. Kirk said, three years will be possible for any college student who wants to accelerate.

"It will happen within 20 years," he continued, "but how soon the Ivy gets into it, I couldn't guess. They'll probably be at the end of the procession on this one."

However, Dr. Kirk added, Columbia already has had "very good results from the three terms in the School of Business, and in our modified summer session." Since 1958, Columbia has offered two six-week summer sessions which enable a student to take as many as 14 credits — almost a full semester's work.

Columbia's total enrollment has remained just about the same. Dr. Kirk said it now stands at 22,500 in the University's 16 schools and colleges and three affiliated institutions, Teachers College, Barnard college and the College of Pharmacy.

Dr. Kirk was asked what he had least anticipated on the day he took over from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who left as president of Columbia to become President of the U.S.

"The thing we didn't see 10 years ago," said Dr. Kirk, "is the massive change in federally supported research. I checked our budget the other day and almost 47 per cent of our total budget now comes from federal research funds."

"This doesn't disturb me at all," he continued. "This is what universities can do best — basic rather than applied research. For example, we couldn't afford to carry on high-level particle research without these funds. As a dramatic example, three of our men are working on two kinds of neutrinos and this calls for a barrier of 40 feet of steel to screen out the other particles. It's terribly expensive."

DR. KIRK also said that "you can't get first-rate scientific research faculty without these funds."

In his own efforts to improve the salaries of other faculty members, Dr. Kirk has removed the $15,000 ceiling on professors' pay; many now make more than $20,000. Salaries of instructors have doubled and those of assistants have tripled.

Are too many people heading for college in the coming enrollment boom? Dr. Kirk was asked. "Let's not waste time talking about it," he said. "They're going to go. The AB degree is now rapidly becoming just like the high-school diploma used to be — and that's good."

Kennedy To Be As Safe In Europe As At Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — When President Kennedy visits Europe he's going to be just about as safe as if he stayed home.

In fact, he would stay home if there were any question about his safety—the U.S. Secret Service would see to that.

The Secret Service, by law, is charged with protecting the President anywhere. And it does so in shifts around the clock, at a palace or embassy abroad as it does at the White House in Washington.

In this country, the Secret Service has the sole responsibility for safeguarding the President, although it also calls on local and state police and occasionally the military for assistance. On trips to other countries, the foreign counterpart of the Secret Service is responsible technically for the security of the President. But actually it is the Secret Service that sets forth the security requirements, working in close cooperation with its opposite number abroad.

When a President travels in other lands, the sharp-eyed, well-built young men constantly by his side, draw exclamations from crowds.

Foreigners always figure they are FBI men or G-Men. But the FBI has no specific authority for guarding the President.

Congress put this power in the hands of the Secret Service years ago. The U.S. Treasury Department, and one of its other major duties is running down counterfeiters.

As on all presidential trips the one to Europe which begins Saturday night is being checked out carefully by an advance party which includes Secret Service agents. These agents and plenty of others—the White House doesn't wish to advertise the exact number—will accompany Kennedy when he starts his 10-day travels to West Germany, Ireland, Britain and Italy.

House Puts Rural Junkyards Under Strict Licensing Law

By WILLIAM S. VANCE

Review Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS — After accepting one amendment and rejecting another, the Ohio House voted Thursday afternoon to put rural auto junk yards under a strict licensing law.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-St. Clairsville, passed 108-13. It now goes back to the Senate for concurrence in House amendments.

The amendment adopted on the House floor Thursday cuts the proposed license fees. The bill sought an initial fee of $100 for a license, renewable annually for $25. The amendment cut the initial fee to $25 and the renewal fee to $10.

The amendment was offered by Rep. Harry Armstrong, R-Hocking, who claimed the proposed fee was unrealistic.

The House rejected an amendment offered by Rep. James Hapner, R-Highland, which would have brought junk yards inside municipalities under the licensing provisions of the bill.

If the Senate concurs in House amendments, new or expanding junk yards outside of municipalities would have to comply with the licensing law by Jan. 1, 1964. All rural junk yards would be required to comply by Jan. 1, 1965.

Junk yards within 1,000 feet of state or county highways or within 300 feet of township roads would have to be obscured by fences or natural objects to obtain a license.

Violators of the licensing law would be subject to fines of $25 to $1,000.

The bill requires county sheriffs to inspect junk yards within their jurisdiction at least twice a year to determine whether licensing provisions are being met.

In other action, the House passed 95-6 a bill co-sponsored by Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, R-Columbiana, which would increase county court judge compensation from $1,500 to $3,000 a year.

Methodists Told To Boycott Spots Selling Alcoholic Drink

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP) — The North-East Ohio Methodist Conference has urged its 273,000 church members to boycott all business places selling alcoholic beverages.

The action was approved Thursday over the objection of the conference's Board of Christian Social Concern. A board member, the Rev. Burton N. Cantrell of Youngstown, said that while the board was sympathetic, "we need a strain of realism as well as puritanism."

The conference, holding its annual meeting, also voted to postpone until 1968 its bid to divide Ohio into two administrative church areas. The reason was the expected merger by 1968 of the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren Churches.

In other action the conference: —Urged church members to work for legislation ending Sunday sales of 3.2 beer in Ohio.

—Urged church members to abstain from use of all tobacco; asked all Methodist institutions in Ohio to ban cigarette machines from their premises, and the four Methodist colleges and universities in Ohio to "discourage in every way" use of tobacco on their campuses. The four are Baldwin - Wallace, Mount Union, Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern.

—Commended the pacem in terris (peace on earth) encyclical issued by the late Pope John XXIII and urged its study by Methodist churches.

Youth's Knee Injured In Downtown Mishap

A 19-year-old passenger was injured slightly late Thursday afternoon in a two-car crash at a downtown intersection, police reported.

E. R. Ford of Warwick, R. I., was treated at City Hospital for an injury of the right knee following the mishap at 3rd and Market Sts., police said.

Ford was a passenger in a 1962 convertible driven by Gary A. Godeill, 26, of Meriden, Conn., which was hit from the rear by a 1956 two-door sedan operated by Claude Brewer, 53, of Chester R. D. 1, officers said.

Cumberland Slot Machine Hearing Reset

NEW CUMBERLAND — Squire John Bryan has continued until Tuesday at 7 p.m. a hearing slated tonight for Bennie Phillips of New Cumberland, charged with illegal possession of gaming devices.

The Hancock County squire issued a warrant for the arrest of the defendant early Sunday morning in connection with a raid on a warehouse of the New Cumberland Vending Co. where 56 slot machines were seized.

Acting on a complaint of Tony Leon of Weirton made to Squire Bryan, Constable Patsy Cortez of Butler District obtained a search and seizure warrant to enter the warehouse here.

After gaining entrance, Cortez summoned West Virginia State Police and sheriff's deputies for assistance in impounding the slot machines valued at $84,000.

The equipment was hauled to State Police Headquarters in Weirton. Squire Bryan said the defendant has retained Atty. Richard Barnes of Wellsburg.

sion of the union's international wage policy committee.

In Washington, the White House said President Kennedy was gratified by the early agreement. But further comment was withheld until the contract terms could be studied.

The agreement culminates about 5 1/2 months of discussions by the joint union-industry Human Relations Committee, a body created after the bitter 116-day strike in 1959 to examine mutual problems.

Under the current two-year contract, the union has had the right since May 1 to re-open formal negotiations. That would have automatically imposed a 90-day strike deadline.

Steelworker President David J. McDonald, who serves as co-chairman of the 10-man committee with R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel, credited the group with doing "a magnificent job," adding, "some said it couldn't be done; but we did it."

Cooper, who has been the industry's chief negotiator in previous labor talks, said, "The Human Relations Committee has enabled the parties to discuss the issues calmly and reasonably without the pressure of any fixed deadline. At this time in the history of collective bargaining, this is a significant development."

Clutter related that the cruiser "was almost completely across" the street when hit by the auto. He said he noted no attempt to brake on the part of the Chester driver, officers said.

Rebuttal Due In Smith Trial

her as the audit neared completion.

Miss Smith said yesterday that she had never said "restitution." She added "That means paying back what you had taken. I probably said I would have to make it up."

Denies Taking Funds

In cross-examination by Brokaw, he asked "Did you ever take any money owned by the city of East Liverpool?" The defendant said, "I did not."

"Did you ever embezzle or convert to your own use any part of the $23,841?" Brokaw asked. "I did not," Miss Smith replied. "Did you ever steal from the water department?" Brokaw asked. Miss Smith again replied "I did not."

Much of Brokaw's cross-examination of Miss Smith yesterday centered on her activities at Waterford Park, the regularity of her visits, the amount of her bets, and her winnings.

Miss Smith testified she visited the race track "two or three times a week" during her lunch hours while employed in the water department, and possessed a pass. "I was too Scotch to pay to get in," she said. She also sent bets to the race track with other persons, she testified.

'Lucky' Horse Better

"I was very lucky. I am certainly ahead of the races, but I don't know how much," she said.

Under consistent questioning by Brokaw on her horse bets, Miss Smith said she had won several daily doubles, and had "wheeled" her bets at times, only twice by herself, and splitting the other bets.

She explained that to "wheel" a bet on the daily double is to pick a horse in one race and combine it with all the other horses in the other half of the daily double.

She said she bet two or three times at the $6 window, and once or twice at the $10 window after winning. She once lost $35 in bets at the track, when she was there an entire day, she testified.

"How much are you ahead?" the prosecutor asked. I can't say, but a good bit," Miss Smith replied. Brokaw asked if she ever reported her winnings on her income tax and she replied she had not, "I guess I cheated."

Personal Life Opened

Many questions were asked in both direct and cross-examination about Miss Smith's personal habits and expenses, and she testified her "take-home pay" was about $248 a month.

She admitted that her monthly payments included $70 to her mother for board, $57.40 payment for her Rambler, $30.68 for a bank loan, $15 for life insurance, $6.90 for hospitalization insurance, $20 for Speigel's, $10 for the D. M. Ogilvie & Co. store, $10 for gasoline and oil for her car, and about $10 in car insurance if considered by the average cost per month, but not paid monthly.

The prosecutor declared that her automobile payment increased $30 monthly when she purchased an F-85 Oldsmobile in 1961. Brokaw said he figured her "take-home pay" for the 31-month period covering the audit was $7,500.

Accounts Questioned

Miss Smith was also questioned at length on her checking and savings accounts deposits. She said that she frequently made deposits in her accounts of funds given her by her family after she had paid bills for them and was reimbursed.

Miss Smith reiterated that she had never told anyone but Mr. Robinson about the alleged $11-

000 theft of deposits from the office safe in September 1959, claiming she had "covered up" for the late water department superintendent at his request.

She said she "respected Mr. Robinson very much," liked him, and even wrote some personal letters for him and collected his rent. "But I can't say he confided in me," she testified.

Following Miss Smith's testimony that was concluded at 3 p.m. Thursday, Brokaw called the chief deputy clerk of Probate Court, Robert Burdick, of East Liverpool, as a rebuttal witness.

15 Spectators At Trial

As the testimony drew to a close, about 15 persons sat in the gallery. The number of spectators has grown each afternoon, although there are only a few in the forenoon. Among them were several members of the previous jury that was unable to reach a verdict in Miss Smith's first trial.

Burdick, at the request of the prosecutor, produced records of the estate of Mr. Robinson. Assets of the late superintendent included a 1940 Packard sedan worth $150, no money, or stocks and bonds, securities, or accounts receivable of any kind, an undivided one-half interest in a $2,500 tract, and a second tract owned alone by Mr. Robinson valued at $8,000.

Total assets of the estate are $10,650, according to the testimony. Brokaw questioned the clerk on his knowledge of Mr. Robinson's reputation concerning his honesty and truthfulness, and he said he had never heard any detrimental statements and that Mr. Robinson had a "very fine reputation."

The trial was then recessed until 9 a.m. Monday.

Summitville Vote Planned On Fire Levy

SUMMITVILLE — Village Council Thursday night voted to place a new five-tenths-mill levy on the November ballot for fire protection.

The money will be used to pay for a contract the village has with the Franklin Township volunteer fire department.

Mayor Ernest Phillips presided. All members were present. Bills totaling $550 were paid.

The mayor announced authorization has been received from the State Highway Department to install a flashing caution light at the intersection of State Route 644 and Depot St. Legislation to install the light will be prepared by Atty. Thomas Coe.

Coe attended in the absence of Atty. Warren Bettis, village solicitor.

Courtney Pennell, district manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., presented a proposed new four-year contract for gas rates. The offer provides the first two years would be one half the rate of increase that was asked two years ago and the second two years would be at the same rate of 3 1/2 per cent.

Council tabled the proposal after a discussion. It will be given further study and brought up again at the next meeting July 18.

Mayor Phillips announced that Shale Ave. and a section of Oak Ave. have been oiled by the county.

At Assembly Dinner

Kaycees Give Chalice

Presentation of a memorial chalice highlighted the 35th annual memorial banquet of Cardinal Mercier Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Thursday night at St. Aloysius Parochial School. About 100 attended.

Joseph J. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator, is pictured presenting the chalice to Fr. Frederick M. Anzivino, pastor of St. John's church in Summitville, who represented Bishop Emmett M. Walsh of Youngstown.

The chalice will be used in one of the chapels at a new high school in the Youngstown Diocese, Fr. Anzivino, former assistant pastor of St. Aloysius, said.

Some 75 heard Fr. Robert Gibas, a native of Newell and now assistant pastor of St. Joseph's in Canton, speak on the priesthood. Fr. Gibas, whose father now resides in Glenmoor, was ordained in December and said his first Mass on New Year's Day at St. Aloysius.

Guests introduced by Frank R. O'Hanlon, toastmaster, included Fr. William Hohman of St. George's in Lisbon, Fr. Eugene Jacobs of Sacred Heart in Chester, William Crumbley and Joseph Hoffman, both of Wellsville, who are students at St. Mary's Seminary in Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. James V. Swinkler of Midland, and Miss Lena Palmano, who prepared the inscriptions on the memorial certificates, which will be given to families of deceased members.

Francis Schlueter of Negley, who will take over as faithful navigator July 1, also was introduced with other new officers.

Joseph O'Hanlon led the pledge of allegiance and Fr. Anzivino gave the invocation. The benediction was given by Fr. Jacobs.

Wellsville Participation In Morgan's Raid Planned

Plans for Wellsville participation in the commemoration of Morgan's Civil War raid into Columbiana County were outlined at a meeting of the Wellsville Historical Society Thursday night at the offices of Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara, president.

Clarence Bell, vice president, presided for the opening and O'Hara took over later.

The design for a wooden niche to be used was displayed. Alterations will be made to the design of a casket.

Edgar Davidson discussed plans for reproducing a Civil War paper at the time of the raid.

Ed Pugh said a medal will be given all the troops participating in a sham battle planned July 28 near West Point.

Highlight of Wellsville's participation will be a costume ball July

27. O'Hara and Pugh were named to check with city authorities and the volunteer firemen to work out arrangements for a place for the dance. Original plans were to use the Public Square at 4th St. but the firemen will have a carnival in the area the week of July 22.

A discussion was held on a costume parade. Mrs. Isabelle Hart volunteered to serve as a co-chairman on arrangements if someone will help.

A group will appear on Steubenville WSTV television July 13 to promote the observance. Commemorative plates to be sold were displayed.

A special meeting will be held July 5 at 7:30 p. m. at City Hall to further plans. The public is invited. All July meetings will be at City Hall.

Four Convicted Of Posing As Federal Agents

CLEVELAND (AP) — A U. S. district court jury has convicted Dominic C. Lonardo, a 42-year-old Cleveland bail bondsman, and three associates of charges of impersonating FBI agents.

Found guilty Thursday with Lonardo were Mario J. Guerrieri, 31, Youngstown bail bondsman; Peter J. Manos, 39, of Youngstown; and Richard A. Stewart, 31, of Cleveland.

Government evidence in the trial showed the four forced Louis Gage and Mrs. Betty Flonoy at gunpoint from a car and held them captive for 11 hours while they questioned the pair about the whereabouts of two bond jumpers.

Judge Girard E. Kalbfleisch deferred sentencing pending disposition of motions for a new trial by the defense attorneys.

Lonardo testified in the trial that he had evidence that Gage

2 Bills Bar Adjournment Of Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There seems to be no certainty among Ohio's legislative leaders how soon—if ever—the 105th General Assembly will meet again.

The general feeling is that legislators of the 105th will meet again, probably shortly after Jan. 1, 1964. The lawmakers certainly will meet if the voters approve a $250-million bond issue for higher education.

That would be because legislators would be required to make legal provision for issuance of the bonds.

The lawmakers also could be called to special session by Gov. James A. Rhodes to take a look at recommendations of a "Little Hoover Commission" now examining state government functions.

As things stand now, there appear to be only two major bills standing between the legislature and adjournment. They are industrial compensation, which popped out of the House Thursday, and the unemployment compensation bill, which came out of the Senate Commerce and Transportation Committee Thursday night.

The latter bill recommends a 5.1 per cent tax increase on employers to build the benefits fund up to a "safe" level of $400 million in the next five years.

The Senate Highways Committee recommended approval of a resolution which would submit to the voters a $200-million bond issue to provide money to meet the cost of providing urban expressways in major cities.

The Senate passed over seven opposing votes a bill putting all drivers under 21 (now 18) in the probationary category. The bill, already passed by the House, must return to the House for agreement on amendments.

Funerals

Irontide firemen then started grappling yesterday morning and the boy's body was found at 10:55, and his companion's at 11:45.

It is not known how they happened to drown. It is possible one waded into a dropoff while casting, and the other may have tried to rescue him, or they may have gone swimming after fishing. Dredging in the vicinity in connection with construction of the Stratton Super-dam created several dropoffs, rivermen said.

The services will be held two hours apart Sunday at the Clark Funeral Home in Toronto with burials following in separate cemeteries. Both families reside on Weatley St., Empire.

James Tice, son of Leslie Tice and Eula Tice, was born in Steubenville April 1, 1956. He was a pupil of the first grade at Stanton Local School and a member of the Aikanna Methodist Church.

Besides his parents he is survived by six sisters, Mrs. Sylvia Channels of Gains, Mich., Mrs. Mary Jane Robertson of Steubenville, Leslie Lynn Tice, Victoria Ann Tice, Roberta Kay Tice and Karen Kim Tice, all at home; three brothers, Lester Tice and Ronald Tice, serving in the Army, and Elmer Tice at home, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little of Empire.

Services will be held at 3 p. m. at the funeral home by the Rev. Dominic Prosperi, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Stratton. Burial will be in Sugar Grove Cemetery, Empire.

Terry Lee Toy, foster son of William Toy and Ruth Toy, was born June 29, 1954, in Steubenville. He was a member of the Osage Church of the Nazarene near Empire.

In addition to his parents, he leaves three sisters, four brothers and two foster sisters.

Services will be held at 1 p. m. at the funeral home by the Rev. Elizabeth Elverdy, pastor. Burial will be in the Osage church cemetery.

Friends of both families may call at the funeral home after 7 tonight.

Brown a cup of thin onion strips lightly in a little butter or margarine; add a pound can of baked beans, a couple of tablespoons of molasses and a half teaspoon dry mustard. Mix well and heat slowly. Serve with ham slices warmed in a skillet.

Pope

the past eight years and worked closely with Pope John during his reign of four years and seven months.

A Vatican diplomat, he was secretary of state for Pope Pius XII.

As the tidings were given to the throngs in St. Peter's Square the great bell of St. Peter's—the campanone—rang out. Other churches took up the peal.

The new Pope went all the way back to the 17th century to take the name of the Roman, Paul V, who died in 1621. In this he followed the example set by John XXIII, who chose a name that had not been used for centuries.

Raimondo Manzini, editor of L'Osservatore Romano, explained to newsmen the significance of the Pope's name:

"It is a symbol of ecumenical unity, venerated by Catholics, Protestants and the Orthodox."

Pope Paul moved dynamically in starting his pontificate. He immediately named Amleto Cardinal Cicognani as his secretary of state. Cardinal Cicognani had been Pope John's secretary of state.

The choice of name and the decision on his secretary of state showed the new Pope's intention to follow the path traced by his predecessor.

Vatican press officials said the Pope's coronation would be June 29. They said he might deliver a message to the world Saturday.

The conclave which elected him was one of the shortest on record, lasting only three voting sessions.

Its ending and the election of a pontiff were signaled to the crowd in St. Peter's Square by white smoke that began pouring from the Sistine Chapel smokestack at 11:20 a.m. The crowd cheered "Bianco!"—"White!"

Had no Pope been elected, the smoke would have been black, as it was at the end of the two voting sessions Thursday.

Crowds poured into warm, sunlit St. Peter's Square as word of the election spread over Rome. Soon more than 100,000 were jammed into the square.

British Chief Orders New Investigation

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today ordered a new inquiry into Britain's security services in the wake of the Profumo scandal.

He told Parliament this week that Scotland Yard had not informed him of espionage suspicions in the three-cornered relationship of former War Secretary John Profumo, party girl Christine Keeler and Soviet assistant naval attaché Eugene Ivanov.

Macmillan, who has apparently won Conservative party approval to keep his job at least until midsummer, ordered the inquiry after consulting with Labor party chief Harold Wilson. But it was not the kind of inquiry Wilson wanted and will probably be the subject of political attack.

The prime minister told the House of Commons he has set up an investigation by judges, headed by Lord Denning, one of the country's senior law officials.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Members of the Buckeye Boys State legislature faced a heavy work load today, final day of the legislative session.

Pending was a batch of important bills, including the appropriations measure which the House passed Thursday and sent to the Senate.

The house made one noteworthy change in the money measure submitted by Gov. Robert Weller of Boardman. Noting there is no joblessness at Boys State, it struck from the bill a $742,470 allocation for unemployment compensation.

Sen. John McDermott of Milford who presided in the upper chamber Thursday in the absence of Lt. Gov. Joseph E. Cook of Oregon, predicted the Senate would pass the budget bill in its present form.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why can't we live our lives backward? I've been married 27 years to the most wonderful wife in the world but I didn't appreciate her until now — when it may be too late.

Tomorrow I go to the hospital for surgery — lung cancer. I thought I was indestructible but I realize now how frail is man and how few are his days.

I have spent most of my adult life in the real estate business and I've done my share of cheating. I used to rationalize my affairs — saying, "Why not? What have I got to lose?" I even told myself my wife was cool to me when I knew she had every right to be. I drank a lot and stayed away from home for days at a time.

I know now the only genuine happiness I ever had was with her. I'd give anything to make up to that dear woman the anguish and heartache I've caused her. If God spares me I'll spend the rest of my life being a good husband.

Before I go into surgery I shall tell my wife about this letter so she can watch the paper for it. It is something I feel compelled to do. Please, Ann, print this. — W. E. J.

Dear W. E. J.: Here is your letter. My prayers are with you.

Dear Ann Landers: I've been living with Al for eight months. He had one bad marriage and doesn't want to risk a second one. He refuses to marry me unless he is sure we can get along together.

We never quarrel and I'm sure he loves me, as I love him. But I hate living this way. I want to be his wife and not his mistress.

On top of all this I have a 9-year-old daughter by a previous marriage. The child is living with her grandmother and I want her here with us. Al likes her very much and is perfectly willing but I'm afraid to uproot her unless I can offer the security of a home protected by marriage.

Al has a temper and I don't want to rile him. Shall I insist on marriage or shall I bring my daughter into the house and hope for the best? — AL'S MISTRESS.

Dear Misguided Fool: Don't bring your child into a setup which you know is immoral. She is far better off with her grandmother.

As for you, I urge you to move out and stay out until you can sign your next letter "Al's Wife." He'll never marry you if you settle for the present arrangement. Why should he?

When Otis comes to our home for an evening we must sit and visit with my parents or play cards with them. Occasionally when I invite Otis into the den so we can have a private conversation my mother criticizes me for being unsociable.

Last week I was on the telephone with Otis for 15 minutes. My mother made a new rule—a five-minute phone limit, and she sets the egg-timer.

Last night the egg-timer went off and Otis heard it. Now I think he is mad at me. If I lose him I'll be awfully unhappy with my mother. I need your help. — YVONNE.

Dear Yvonne: Teen-agers should not be expected to spend evenings playing cards with parents. I can't imagine anything more boring. And the egg-timer routine is an insult. I don't think a 15-minute phone conversation is out of line—but no longer, please.

Confidentially

TO OUT OF GAS: This is the least of your problems, Jack. I think the real trouble is under your hood. Get professional help.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Governor Vetoes Mortgages Act

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes for the first time has vetoed an act passed by the GOP-controlled general assembly.

The measure he struck down Thursday, the governor said, "would withdraw needed protections from borrowers who give mortgages on their homes."

Sponsored by Rep. Ralph Cole Jr., R - Hancock, the legislation sought by reference to eliminate a lengthy provision now embodied in mortgages.

"The ordinary man who buys a home but gives a mortgage to secure his note in payment for it does not own or even know what the revised code looks like," Rhodes said in his veto message.

"It is there that he would have to look to find the measure of his obligation and the facts that would constitute default."

"It seems to me unfair to impose this burden upon him."

Red China Criticizes Kennedy Peace Move

TOKYO (AP) — Red China sharply criticized President Kennedy's peace overtures to the Soviet Union, calling them "his most cunning and most sinister plot" to divide Moscow and Peking.

Radio Peking said today the official People's Daily printed the full text of the President's June 10 speech at the American University of which a Kremlin commentator wrote approvingly last week.

The President in his speech called for "mutual tolerance" as a prelude to nuclear disarmament and world peace.

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — Ten thousand more East Pakistanis were reported driven from their homes by floods sweeping the Chittagong area.

Torrents of water swept through the densely populated area, adding to the misery that was caused by the May 29 cyclone and tidal wave on the Bay of Bengal coast.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruze —

DEAR HELOISE: Strawberry time is almost upon us and my family can hardly wait. I wish I knew how to prepare them properly. We always seem to end up with more of the crushed strawberries than the firm.

STRAWBERRY LOVER.

DEAR STRAWBERRY: Strawberries are really summertime ambrosia. They are expensive and not something which we set on our table everyday. Therefore, we gave this much thought and experimentation.

We found the best way to wash strawberries which were to be eaten immediately was to wash them first while the stem and "greenery" was still attached to the strawberry itself. We found that if they were first washed to remove sand, while the stem was still connected, that the juice did not run out of the strawberry. Nor were many grains of sand redeposited in the cut end.

Strawberries must be washed well. The little seeds seem to hold the soil. The way you can tell when they are thoroughly washed is:

Float them in a pan of water! Do not put them in a dry pan and run the water on them as this bruises the strawberries.

FILL THE PAN half full of water, dump the strawberries in and then toss them lightly with your fingers. Then put the pan under your cold water faucet—and a spray-type gadget is the best—and let them tumble themselves under the spray faucet. We found that this gets most of the sand off.

Once you see sand in the bottom of this pan . . . turn the water faucet off. Have another pan set aside which is also half-filled and gently lift the strawberries, which are floating on top of the water by this time . . . and place them in the second pan!

Keep doing this until there is no residue at the bottom of the water.

Then remove the wick from the strawberries (as you correctly stated, strawberries are best when cut exactly in half or left whole), and place the berries in a glass bowl. Place one layer of strawberries on the bottom of the bowl and lightly sprinkle them with sugar.

PLACE ANOTHER layer or two on top of this and sprinkle it a little heavier with the sugar. When you throw the last batch in, sprinkle it the heaviest with sugar. The sugar drips from the top layer of strawberries and falls down over the two layers on the bottom!

We then set this bowl of strawberries back into the refrigerator and let them get rechilled for a few hours.

And, ladies, we tried six different procedures on six different boxes of strawberries. You can fix your strawberries any way you want to and if you have another idea please write it in.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: About removing yellow from kitchen cabinets. Don't. Just buy enough of the vinyl adhesive-backed paper and cover them.

My husband and I covered ours in "birch". It cost about five dollars and everyone thinks we have new kitchen cabinets.

Remove the handles first, overlap the edges cutting a "V" for the corners and it is the easiest thing in the world to do. If bubbles occur, prick them out with a needle and press the air out.

As a matter of fact three years ago we did our kitchen walls above the tile. It cost us one-quarter of what a paper hanger had quoted for the job.

Our bathroom cost us even less. Three years later they are still perfect and I even use scouring powder on the soiled spots. We are delighted. We even did the drawer fronts on the drawers under our sink.

ALICE H. SMITH.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of putting my baby's high chair in the shower and letting the water run to clean it—I just put it on the lawn when I am sprinkling the grass! I also use this method for my child's jumper chair and his walker. This kills three birds with one stone.

Soviet Okays Check Of Nuclear Reactors

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The United States and other nations took heart today from the Soviet Union's about-face approval of inspection of nuclear reactors by appointees of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

The Soviet action came at a meeting Thursday of the IAEA Board of Governors reversing previous Red opposition to the plan as snooping.

The plan calls for extending IAEA safeguards to nuclear reactors of more than 100 megawatts for which materials are supplied by the agency. Such material is pledged to peaceful use only, and the inspection guards against its diversion to military use.

Ashcroft Increases Average . . .

Rich Ashcroft, the former South Side and Wichita University flash, is making it big with the Orlando Twins of the Florida State League.

Ashcroft's batting average continues to climb and at last look, which included games up until last Friday night, he was hitting a lousy .326.

This average is the fifth best in the eight-team Florida State League and is tops for an Orlando regular. He has driven in 25 runs.

Rich hasn't hit a home run as a professional yet, but he has been pointed out that teams in that league play in the ball parks used by the Major League teams during spring training and the fences are far reaching.

In a game Sunday night when Orlando blanked St. Petersburg, 2-0, Rich was responsible for both runs as he scored one and drove in the other with a sharp single.

Nelson To Attend Marietta . . .

ED NELSON, the lanky forward who was the big reason Wellsville upset East Liverpool at Beacom Memorial gym last basketball season when he poured in 29 points, is headed for Marietta College.

Nelson has been granted a full scholastic scholarship to Marietta. He was one of the leading scorers for the Tigers last season.

Coach Bob Kelly, the ex-Ohio State basketball captain, is happy to obtain young Nelson and has plans to work him into the Marietta basketball picture next season. Freshmen are eligible to compete in varsity sports in the Ohio Conference of which Marietta is a member.

Chick McMillan, assistant cage coach at Wells, played his college average in the classroom.

Musuraca Picks Dayton U. . .

SCOTT MUSURACA, the backbone of the Potter defensive forces last football season, has become the 19th Ohioan to enroll at Dayton University as a freshman football prospect.

Musuraca played offensive guard and middle line-backer on Coach Bob Hedmon's eleven and earned three varsity grid letters at ELHS.

Scotty fits in with the recruiting program started by Pete Ankney, new head football mentor at Dayton. Mike Hall, assistant grid coach at Dayton, said, "We were attracted to Musuraca because of his toughness on the field. He has a great desire to stay with the play and his speed and lateral movements, both on offense and defense, are promising enough for our caliber of college football."

He will enter the School of Education in September.

THE MUSURACAS have another son who is making the headlines these days. Jim Musuraca hurled a no-hitter the other night for Golden Star in the Little League. In fact he just missed a perfect game.

Nick Musuraca, who rewrote a few grid records at Denison University, is awaiting orders to report to the Air Force. He was commissioned a second lieutenant last week following his graduation from Denison.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

IN TALKING to Bumps Elliott Thursday night at Warren, the Michigan grid coach, is expecting things from Rick Sygar, the All-Ohio back from Niles who is expected to crack the varsity lineup in his sophomore year coming up.

He was voted the freshman with the most potential following spring drills this year.

Michigan also has heard of Weirton's Ron Williams and the Wolverine basketball staff would like nothing better than to see this 6-foot-3 court wizard walking around the campus at Ann Arbor.

Williams will be a senior next year and he will no doubt be one of the most sought after athletes ever to come out of the Ohio Valley.

Tribe Tops Baltimore, 3½ Behind

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It took Bill Dailey 10 years to find a home, but he's finally arrived.

Home is the Minnesota bullpen, but as often as not, Dailey's been forced to leave on business. He got the call again Thursday for the 23rd time, pitched scoreless ball for four innings and preserved the Twins' 9-4 triumph over the second-place Chicago White Sox.

Acquired from Cleveland for $40,000, the right-hander, 28, has turned into one of the American League's top firemen since he altered his stride toward the plate early in the season.

Dailey's sharp relief pitching dropped the White Sox two games back of the first-place New York Yankees, who edged last-place Washington 5-4 on Bobby Richardson's two-run double in the ninth inning and ran their winning streak to seven games.

Boston added to Detroit's troubles 8-3, with homers by Dick Stuart and Chuck Schilling sending the Tigers down to their 10th straight setback. Cleveland rode Max Alvis' grand slam homer to an 11-8 victory over Baltimore. Kansas City and the Los Angeles Angels were not scheduled.

Richardson drilled a Jim Coates pitch to right for the runs that made it eight losses in a row for the Senators. Coates, 2-4, took the loss with Marshall Bridges, 2-0, the winner in relief. Yogi Berra relinquished his coaching duties for New York, donned his catching gear and hit a two-run homer.

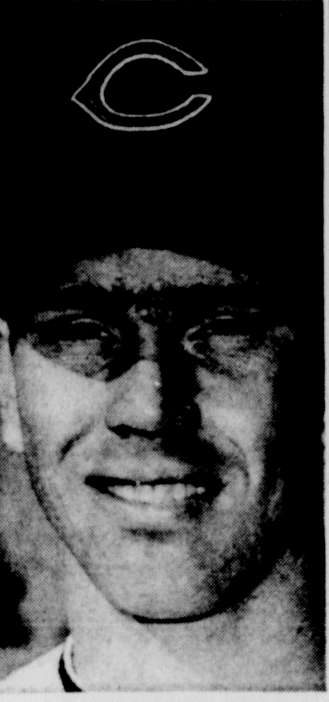

Stuart's 17th homer, driving in his 43rd run, ignited a five-run Red Sox rally in the fourth inning capped by a two-run double by pitcher Arnold Earley and Schilling's homer. Earley, 3-2, got the victory, while Jim Bunning, 4-7, was tagged with the loss and a $50 fine by Umpire Hank Soar when he hit Roman Mejias with a pitch after Schilling connected.

The Indians came from behind with six runs in the seventh inning to beat the Orioles. Jerry Kindall's two-run single tied the score, then Alvis put it out of reach. Joe Azcue hit two homers for the Indians and Woodie Held chipped in with one. Jim Gentile and losing pitcher Dick Hall, 2-2, connected for Baltimore. Jerry Walker, 6-1, was the winner.

Cubs Blank Colts; Bucs Beaten, 2-1

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole will never lead the shrinking violet league.

He'll tell you he's quite a pitcher, and then go right out and show you with his good left arm.

He showed the Philadelphia Phillies Thursday night, 11-1, and ran his record to 13-3, the top victory total in the majors. The brash Irishman, 26, also lowered his earned run average to 2.01, a pretty good talking point.

The fourth-place Reds gained one-half game on the three National League leaders, the St. Louis Cardinals, San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers, who all were idle.

The Chicago Cubs, just one percentage point back of the Reds, kept pace with a 5-0 beating of the Houston Colts.

In the only other game on the National League schedule, Denny Lemaster, who has suddenly acquired the home run habit, pitched and batted the Milwaukee Braves to a 2-1 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The cellar New York Mets were also idle, although they invaded Yankee Stadium with 50,000 fans and trimmed the Yankees 6-2 in an exhibition game. It took the police and some nimble ushers to keep the Mets fans from taking the Yankees' world champions pennant home for a souvenir of the occasion.

Chicago ace Larry Jackson, making his 16th start and going the distance for the seventh time, gave up only four singles to the Colts as he pitched his eighth win and third shutout.

Billy Williams cracked two homers to spark the Cubs offense. Williams now has 14 hits in his last 23 trips. Ex-Cub Dick Drott was the victim.

Lemaster, who had won only two games previously despite a 2.06 earned run average, hit his second major league homer for the winning margin against the Pirates. He hit his only other homer in his last game.

Harvey Haddix was the loser. Eddie Mathews hit his ninth homer for the Braves and Ron Brand hit his first major league homer for the Pirates.

Palmer 4 Behind, Nicklaus 7 Back

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—The U.S. Open golf championship moves into its second round today with a "who he?" in front, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player in trouble and defending champion Jack Nicklaus with his broad back squarely to the wall.

"I'll have to shoot a 66 or 67 to get back into it," a discouraged Nicklaus said after his horrendous 76 Thursday left him seven strokes behind the leader—Michigan club pro Bob Cajda.

"The way things are going, I don't know, I don't know," the Ohioan, 23, added. "I certainly don't feel very good about it. It was my worst round in the open since 1959 and my worst of any kind in a long, long time."

No one looks to Gajda, 46, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., bachelor, to duplicate the sizzling 2-under-par 69 he fired on opening day at the windswept and rain-dampened old course of The Country Club that stretches 6,870-British type yards and plays to a par of 35-36-71.

But there are 43 players ahead of Nicklaus and 19 others tied with him. Many are capable of matching Nicklaus shot for shot in this 72-hole grind that ends with Saturday's 36-hole double round.

At 70 is Texan Jack Cupit, 25, tabbed as one of the bright new stars of the game. At 71 are red-hot Tony Lema, former champion Julius Boros, and veteran Lionel Hebert along with Davis Love, 28, a club pro from Charlotte, N.C.

Such as Don January and Walt Burkemo opened with 72s, Palmer landed in a big group at 73 and Player in a bigger batch at 74.

First round scores of Ohioans in Thursday's round of the National Open golf tournament (a-ama-teur):

Dow Finsterwald, Athens 36-37 —73

JACK NICKLAUS
'62 Winner Disgusted.

Frank Stranahan, Toledo 38-38 —76

a-Alex Antonio Jr., Vienna 38-38 —76

Jack Nicklaus, Columbus 39-37 —76

Ross Coon, Cleveland 40-38 —78

Ed Griffiths, Chagrin Falls 38-43 —81

Arthur Doering, Columbus 41-45 —86

Gil Knew Anguish, Knows It Better Now

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Gil Hodges knows anguish.

He once went 21 times at-bat in a World Series without a hit.

He was the Brooklyn first baseman when Bobby Thomson took $10,000 World Series money right out of his pocket with his historic playoff home run.

Pony League Games Set For Saturday

Two games rained out Thursday in the Pony League will be played Saturday at 6 p.m. Woodbine will meet Littens at Dople Field and Burbick's takes on Bright's at Thompson Park.

He was a member of the world's worst baseball team, the 1962 Mets.

But no anguish he ever suffered before compares to the anguish Hodges is suffering now.

Twenty two defeats in 29 games

Almost Tear Up Yankee Stadium

50,000 New Breeders See Their Mets Down Yankees

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Ah, but what a beautiful night it was. Ol' Case came home and his followers almost ripped up Yankee Stadium, the Mets beat the Yanks and Jimmy Piersall hit a cop.

It took place at the Mayor's Charity game Thursday night when Casey Stengel led his New York Mets across the Harlem River to do battle with the world champion Yankees for the benefit of New York's sandlot baseball program.

Some 50,000 of the New Breed followed their 10th-place heroes into the House that Ruth Built. They howled and yelled and stamped their feet. They chanted and cheered and beat each other on the head with programs. They tossed some firecrackers and tried to swipe the pennant and some of them got collared by the cops.

And when it was all over, the Mets haughtily stalked out of the stadium with a 6-2 victory over the surprised, chastened Yankees, who had to leave by a back exit.

"Don't go out through the front," Yankee equipment man Pete Previte told them in the dressing room afterwards. "They're crazy out there. The cops are all inside the ball park trying to clear the field. Go out the back way."

The police at that time, immediately after the game, had their own problems. They were trying to clear thousands of shouting, milling fans from the grounds.

A quick dash got stadium ushers to the centerfield flagpole just before a band of the Breed who were intent on hauling down the Yankees' world champions pennant.

Piersall was upset enough that the bat slipped out of his hands while he was batting in the third inning. It sailed into the box seats along third base and cracked a man in the ribs. He is Deputy Police Commissioner William L. Rowe.

No great damage done. The ribs were taped and Jimmy got his bat back. He got it back in time to single to right and launch a decisive, five-run burst against troubled Yankee pitcher, Stan Williams.

Top Horses, Drivers Set For Meeting At Meadows

Not only will The Meadows welcome area racing fans for the first time on Friday, June 28, but the modern racing plant will have a host of the nation's best horses and drivers on hand for its inaugural racing program.

Scheduled as the feature of the opening night nine - race card is the Arden Downs Stake for three-year-old pacing colts with an estimated purse of $15,000.

Both Stanley Dancer and Billy Haughton, high on the list of the sport's elite drivers, will be on hand for the first stake race over The Meadows' much - heralded synthetic track and each has several outstanding colts eligible for the pace.

Haughton, the winningest driver in harness racing history and the only driver to amass 2,000 wins thus far, has four colts eligible including Max Hanover who won the first division of the $39,150 Liberty Bell pace at that track's opener.

Haughton moved Max Hanover to a blazing :58.4-5 mark at the half-mile and reached the wire in 2:00.4-5 as the sidewheeler established himself as one of the top three-year-olds in this impressive early showing.

Dancer, driver of the year last season as he accumulated $760,434 in purse winnings with his horses, has a pair of good pacers eligible for the Arden Downs Stake. They are a majestic Hanover who finished first seven times and had two seconds in nine starts as a two-year-old and Sly Yankee who finished in the money in 15 or 22 starts last season, earning $40,046.

Dancer and Haughton are familiar names at all of the nation's major harness tracks. Haughton was the leading money winning driver from 1952 through 1959, including a record $816,659 in 1958 and has ranked second to Dancer in this category during the past two seasons.

Dancer, a rather youthful 36, handles a host of leading harness horses and has won the Little Brown Jug, the sport's pacing classic, the last two years. Stanley also drives Su Mac Lad, leading money winning harness horse of all - time.

Dancer's meteoric climb began with the purchase of a broken-down nine-year-old trotter for $225 when he was just 20 and he hasn't slowed down since.

Most all of the leading harness drivers will be on hand with their stables during the 50 nights of racing at The Meadows through August 24.

BASEBALL HEROES
BATTING—Max Alvis, Indians, capped six-run seventh inning upsurge with grand slam homer, snapping 7-7 tie and powering Cleveland to 11-8 victory over Baltimore.

PITCHING—Larry Jackson, Cubs, brought his record to 8-6 with four-hitter in 5-0 shutout of Houston.

Marilynn Smith Has Western Open Lead
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A determined band of 100 golfers, including most of the nation's top pros, challenged a narrow and tricky course with vengeance today in the second round of the 34th Women's Western Open.

Many of the entrants were left feeling like duffers as par 74 stood up in amazing fashion in the opening round of the 72-hole tournament Thursday at the 6,250-acre maple bluff Country Club course.

Veteran pro Marilynn Smith, the former Kansas State and intercollegiate champion, was the only one in the field to conquer the exacting layout whipped by a strong north wind. Miss Smith fired a 2-under-par 72 for a four-stroke lead over Sybil Griffin.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Young Mother Sorry She Left School

A young Ohio mother writes: "People like myself really don't like to admit that to give up school is a terrible mistake, which of course you find out as you grow older. Some people know what it is they want out of life much sooner than others. I happen to be one of the 'others'. So, knowing Dr. Garry Meyers what they want, they go ahead and get an education and become teachers, doctors, lawyers, etc., while we others don't make anything of ourselves. We thought that we were smarter than they, but we found out later on that it was they who were the smart ones."

"I FELT THAT, being a girl, I didn't have to worry, because sooner or later I would get married and my husband would take care of me as my mother and dad did. Well, I did get married to a very wonderful man, but I now have two children, a girl seven and eight.

"At this age it is easy for me to help them with their school work and to even answer any questions they might ask, so they think that their Mom is so very smart. But I know that pretty soon, unless I do something about it, they will find out that I'm not the brain they thought I was."

"Some women will say, 'I keep my kids clean, make a good home for them and feed them, so what more is there for me to do?' I know, because I have said the same things, as I didn't want to admit to myself that being a good mother just isn't enough.

"I could put the blame on the fact that my parents were not educated enough to help me, but that is a poor excuse. My father is a wonderful, kind and gentle man who wanted me to have a good education. He wanted this more than anything, because he never had a chance to get one. But I let him down and I now know that it hurt him, even though he didn't say so."

THEN SHE ENCLOSED some verse entitled "Time", which she wrote as advice to youths thinking of quitting school.

Here are a few lines from it: Give yourself time to find out what you would like to be, or what you want to do.

To Resume Losing . . . Step Up Exercise

Dieters who make excellent progress in reducing often stop losing when they are within 20 pounds of their ideal weight. Here are two examples: "I followed your spring diet with good results. I lost 20 pounds. Now, although I am following the same food plan, my weight hasn't changed for more than two weeks," she explained.

Another reducer writes: "I should lose 65 pounds, and though I have tried, really tried, I reduce 25 pounds — then stop losing. Discouraged, I slip back into my former eating habits."

A kindly doctor once told your dietitian, "Help your dieters over the weight plateau — for that is the most you can do for them."

THE WEIGHT — STANDSTILL periods are tough to take. After considerable weight has been lost, you will reach a point where you temporarily stop losing, even though you are following the same diet. The pattern of losing always involves weight plateaus. After you lose a certain amount, you stay on a plateau until this weight level is stabilized.

Then too, weight loss is determined by the deficit between the calories burned for energy and the number eaten. In the beginning of a reducing project, a 1000 to 1200 calorie diet daily established a deficit of approximately 7000 calories a week, which brings a 2 pound weight loss. One pound of body fat is figured at 3,500 calories.

As body weight lowers, fewer calories are required. It took fuel to carry the excess fat — now removed. In other words, your calorie requirements were higher at your heavier weight. Now, the deficit between the number of calories required for running your body and the number furnished in the 1000 or 1200 calorie diet has diminished.

TWO MEASURES will help at this stage. First, step up your exercise. Exercise not only increases calorie burning, but tones the muscles. After part of the excess fat has been lost, it is easier to walk and take simple toner — uppers. This is ideal weather for walking. Step off a couple of miles a day. Also take some contraction exercises, holding the muscle contraction for six seconds. Breathe freely.

Secondly, make sure to have a protein food at each of the three meals, and for the scientific pick-ups between meals. Avoid overeating at any one meal, and do not take the bulk of your calories late in the day.

Deadline Set At 5 For Candidates' Expense Reports

The County Election Board issued a reminder to candidates that a deadline falls at 5 this afternoon for filing sworn statements of campaign expenditures in the May 7 primaries.

The reports are required of all office-seekers, whether or not they were successful, and from committees which supported or opposed any candidate or issue. State law sets the deadline at 4 p.m. legal time, which makes it 5 in communities such as East Liverpool which operate on Daylight Saving Time.

Three more candidates filed the statements yesterday.

Frank Youst, unsuccessful Republican candidate for the nomination for Second Ward councilmen, reported expenses of $11.20. A statement listing expenditures of $34.67 was filed by H. A. Tullis, defeated GOP candidate for a Council-at-large nomination.

Thomas W. Hunter, unopposed Democratic nominee for city auditor at Wellsville, said he spent $25.76. The Columbiana County Republican party spent nothing, according to a report from James Magill, treasurer.

Salem Truck Driver Unhurt, Man Killed

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — A 41-year-old Euclid man was killed Thursday when the car he was driving and a tractor-trailer hauling bricks collided on rain-slickened Ohio 183, south of here.

Dead is William Carl Romoser, whose automobile, the highway patrol said, skidded and veered to the opposite side of the road. The truck plowed into it, broadside. The truck driver, Paul J. Highfield, 28, of Salem, was not injured.

Bridgetender Crushed To Death In Mishap

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — As a bridgetender opened a swinging bridge over the Maumee River to allow a sailboat to pass, Lawrence Scholl, about 50, of Toledo, was crushed to death between the bridge and its abutment.

Scholl and George Horsman were painting the underside of the bridge when the accident occurred Thursday. Scholl, who was a bridgetender for the New York Central Railroad, fell about 25 feet into the water.

Health Board Clears Water Fluoride Plan

The Health Board Thursday night gave its approval to a proposal to add fluoride to the city's water supply as an aid to control of tooth decay, particularly in youngsters, and recommended that Council enact enabling legislation to put the program into effect.

In sanctioning the plan, the board gave approval to a suggestion made about two months ago by the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water system.

The board acted last night after hearing detailed reports from Dr. Myer Alpern, representing the Columbiana County Dental Society, and Supt. Donald T. Duke of the water department. The fluoridation proposal first was advanced in a letter to Council from W. O. Schneider, chairman of the utilities board. It asked that Council authorize the board to purchase equipment necessary to add a controlled amount of fluorides to the water supply.

Council referred the question to the Health Board.

Septimus Cook, acting health commissioner, reported the Pennsylvania Railroad has started to clean up debris and adjust drainage level near its tracks between Virginia Ave. and Belek Sts.

The board sent a letter to the railroad last month complaining about health hazards resulting from the drainage problem and demanding the railroad take steps to abate the situation.

Mrs. Luella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 96 births and 43 deaths between May 16 and yesterday. Births included 49 males and 47 females.

Cook and John Owen made a total of 336 inspections and investigations while Miss Selma Ladzinski, public health nurse, reported 184 visits.

DRY CLEANING FLUID

Q. I recently tried one of the new coin-operated dry cleaning machines. Is the cleaning fluid used in such machines poisonous?

A. Various solvents are used in such machines and it would be difficult to give a pat answer to your question without knowing the name of the solvent involved. Many dry cleaning establishments use tetrachlorethylene. This chemical, one of several used in coin-operated machines, is moderately toxic. The vapors are easily absorbed through the lungs, and inhalation of the vapor may cause headache, lightheadedness and extreme drowsiness. Coin-operated establishments should be well ventilated to protect customers and workers from over-exposure to cleaning fluids. However, no poisonous effects can be experienced from dry clothing cleaned in this manner.

CARBUNCLES

Q. What causes me to keep having carbuncles, and what can I do to stop them?

A. You should see your physician and find out whether you have too much sugar in your system or some other disorder. It is certainly not "normal" to have a succession of boils or carbuncles so don't put off a visit to your doctor.

Taft Raps Kennedy's Plan For Domestic Peace Corps

CLEVELAND (AP)—Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, says that President Kennedy's proposed "domestic Peace Corps" is filled with flaws.

In a speech Thursday to the Cleveland Rotary Club he listed these as "flaws":
—It will add only 5,000 expense-paid volunteers in fields where American communities already have 133,000 social workers and 200,000 clergy, plus teachers, public health, police and local volunteers already at work.

—Fitting these national service corpsmen for duty will cost $4,100 each. Why not use that money, Taft asked to hire fully trained social workers, teachers or other such helpers into already existing programs?

—The corps would try to "cover the waterfront," seeking to patch up all these sore spots—mental institutions; migratory workers' health and education; slums in rural and urban areas; Indians on and off reservations; care and rehabilitation of aged, disabled, and delinquents; sagging school systems; and anything else the "boss" of the corps calls a "critical need."

Taft said the "boss" is President Kennedy—"the top political officer in the government" with no check by anyone else.

Taft proposed two changes in the national service corps bill: first, limit it to specific areas where the federal government is responsible, and second, keep it nonpolitical.

The administration's domestic Peace Corps assumes that private charity and local programs have fallen down and need help in fighting ignorance, deprivation and suffering, Taft said.

Taft also indicated to newsmen that he is considering plans to run for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Stephen M. Young, a Democrat, in 1964. He said he would make his decision by October.

Buckeye Girls State Begins Serious Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Using a pop bottle for a gavel, House Speaker Connie Stubbs of Middletown called the Buckeye Girls State legislature into session Thursday and the make-believe lawmakers started pouring bills into the legislative hoppers.

They covered a wide range of subjects.

The 1,204 delegates heard an address Thursday night by Miss Jane E. McCormick, assistant dean of women at Ohio State University.

Girls State, sponsored by the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary, ends Sunday.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast
NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high is 81-82, normal low 61-63. Cool Friday night, followed by a slow warming trend over the weekend, becoming cooler next week and warmer by midweek. Precipitation will average about 1/4 inch with widely scattered showers Sunday and Monday and again about Wednesday.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE HARPSICHORD

QUESTION: Who invented the harpsichord and how does it work?

ANSWER: One of the first stringed instruments to appear was the harp (1) in which a series of strings is plucked with the fingers, each having a separate, fixed note. About 1300, experiments began laying such an instrument on its side and then using a keyboard so that depressing each key would sound one of the strings. (We don't know exactly who invented the idea.)

Two main systems of sounding the strings were used. In the "clavichord," the strings were struck by pieces from below. This led to the development of the piano where felt-tipped hammers sound the strings. In the other system, the strings were plucked by quills (see drawings). The quills were hinged to the "jack" and after plucking, folded in when the jack slid down. This system, used in the small "spinnet" (2) led to the harpsichord pictures below). This was extremely popular in the 1600's and 1700's, but later lost place to the piano, because the piano had a more ringing and expressive tone. But there is a fascination in the reedy sound of the harpsichord and, especially through the influence of the great musician Wanda Landowska, the use of the harpsichord has come back.

FOR YOU TO DO: Press down a piano key in the lightest way possible and notice what a soft tone you get. Now press harder and get a louder tone; with a strong stroke you get a very loud tone. Notice too, that if you keep the key down, the tone goes on singing. Beautiful as the harpsichord is, it can't give you such shades of expression.

Janet Weist of Rochester, Minn., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a post card to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you may win $10 or a set of Britannica Junior Encyclopedias.
